

Highlights of Board of Directors Meeting Of the Guild of Creative Art of March 6, 2013

The meeting was called to order by board President V. Matulewich. Present: L. Backlund, F.Higgins, M.Christiansen, M. Baldi, D. Colasurdo. Absent: Migliaccio, Redden, Machinsky, Fitzsimmons.

A motion to accept the revised minutes was made by Donna and seconded by Marilyn. The revised minutes were approved unanimously.

Correspondence: Flo reported she had sent cards of condolence to Demetrius Patterson and Ray Brennan and a thank you to Ann Curley.

Treasurer's Report: The total report is included with the minutes.

Vicky's Report: Report is included with minutes.

Old Business:

Building & Grounds: We will look into new snow removal service for next year.

Public Relations: Mary C. volunteered to supervise the guild's social media sites to make sure they are up to date.

Flo reported she had contacted the Shrewsbury Zoning Office about a new sign and was informed any sign change requires a permit and must be reviewed by the office. Flo will report at next meeting.

Classes: Donna reported she contacted the Shrewsbury School Art teacher inviting the students to tour the Guild. This is a possibility for next school term. She suggested students in Leslie's class on Saturday might be interested in the tour. Both suggestions need more study.

Gallery: Marilyn and Leslie offered to head the Garden Party theme which will be held in June in conjunction with the show opening.

Vince reported the Eyesight Show on March 3 was successful with over 200 people attending. The Mayor of Shrewsbury Donald Burden presented the awards.

The meeting was adjourned at 6 P.M. The next meeting is April 3 from 4 to 6 P.M.

Flo Higgins, Secretary