

Dana McKay

Dana grew up learning from her talented family of artists, photographers, writers, musicians and inventors. She studied art and photography at Brookdale Community College, graduating in 1981 with an AAS degree in Communication Design. She was then hired as a Graphic Designer for Brookdale, where she worked for 23 years, and is now retired.

Dana has won four JSPRAA awards for photography and graphic design, as well as other awards in photography and acrylic painting. For six years she chaired or co-chaired the Brookdale Annual Alumni Association Juried Art Show. She has exhibited in many Monmouth and Bergen County shows. She is an active member of The Art Alliance of Monmouth County in Red Bank, where she exhibits her photography and paintings, and has served on their Board of Trustees. Dana is also a general member of the Shrewsbury Art Guild, where she exhibits and has been studying Lyrical Abstract Expressionist painting for the past three years. She is also an exhibiting member of the Art Society of Monmouth County.

For Inquiries about this artist's work please contact the Guild of Creative Art at 732-741-1441.