

2020 Open Juried Show Judge

Ellen Martin was born on the Museum Mile, spent her early childhood in Manhattan and later moved to Brooklyn where she received her B.A. in Art History from Brooklyn College.

Martin painted exclusively for several years and is now a photographer, curator and artists' advocate. As a photographer, Martin is known for her award-winning "Abandoned" photography series.

She has been the Curator at the Oyster Point Hotel since the end of 2017 and has recently become their Director of Art Programming. As an artists' advocate, Martin started the Jersey Artist Registry online gallery in 2013 to showcase the talent of New Jersey visual artists. She also started the "No Starving Artist Auction" to help artists gain exposure and sell their work.

Martin regularly participates as a Judge for the annual Congressional Art Competition for High School Students and has recently been a Judge for the Monmouth Museum New Jersey Emerging Artists Series.
