

Mary Jean Canziani

She holds a BFA from Marymount College in Tarrytown, NY, with a concentration in Printmaking and a strong foundation in Art History.

She has continued developing her skill set through travel and career pursuits. Her early work experience was in Visual Merchandising and Graphic Design followed by establishing a Decorative Painting business, executing specialty finishes and murals.

Once Ms. Canziani returned to her personal art practice ten years ago she has exhibited her work in the U.S. and Europe. Her pieces are in collections in the U.S., Germany, Italy, France and Australia. She is preparing for a solo show in Venice in 2022.
