Build the Guild's future – Join our Board of Directors

The Guild of Creative Art's Nominating Committee is in the process of considering members to fill vacant positions on our Board of Directors. Individuals must be committed to maintaining our high standards within the fine arts community, are energetic, and are willing to devote their time to the Guild. Contact dlevy1939@gmail.com ASAP to arrange a short interview. Financial, marketing, and public relations skills are a plus. Most importantly, we are seeking individuals who will be dedicated to the Guild's mission of advancing excellence in the visual arts.

Presidents' Message from the Guild's Co-Presidents David Levy and Barbara Russo

dlevy1939@gmail.com

bargraphx@comcast.net

The three levels of membership we employ at the Guild, General, Associate, and Exhibiting, were established in 1960 at the very beginning of our founding. Even those untrained in art could exhibit with us. At the same time, artists who sought greater exposure could elevate their exhibiting opportunities if they were willing to have their art critiqued and evaluated by a panel of fellow artists.

There are criteria for excellence in all art mediums, yet, there is always some level of subjectivity involved. Still, we believe that our membership structure helps us to fulfill our mission: To advance excellence in the Visual Arts. There is no surer indicator of this than the Exhibiting Members All Mediums No-Theme Show which is on display through August 30. Diverse in style and medium, with originality, compositional sophistication, and great technical execution, the exhibit is a testament to the vision of our founder, Yvonne Aubert and a reminder of how much talent we have at the Guild, sixty-three years later. One leaves the exhibit a changed person; precisely what art, at its best, can do, to and for the viewer!

Next up in our Main Gallery: "The Jersey Six - Women Together; Contemporary Realism." Each of the six artists has formidable, impressive skills and much to reveal. You can see this show, featuring Beth Baue-Flancbaum, Sherly Bennett, Elizabeth Diamond, Laurie Flannery, Daphne Hobson, and Carole Rogers. We look forward to their display. Concurrently, Exhibiting and Associate members will display artwork in our lobby, as they do each month as one of the perks those members enjoy. These exhibits will be on view from Saturday, September 2nd until pick up on Wednesday, September 27th. The opening reception will be the Sunday following Labor Day weekend, September 10th, from 3:00 - 5:00.

If history is any guide, the 31st Annual October Open Juried Show will be one of the Guild's signature events of the year. With over $2000 in award monies our judges (Gina Torello and Phil Echo) will have the difficult task of paring down more than 200 submissions to approximately 100 entries, and to choose the award winners. Those who are accepted into the show must bring their works to the Guild on WEDNESDAY, September 27th from noon until 7:00 PM. All work must be received during that time, as hanging takes place on Thursday, and judging for prizes happens on Friday. The reception will be Sunday, October 1st, from 3:00 – 5:00 PM, with the awards ceremony at 4:00 PM. If you want to see a special event, come that day, as there is always an air of excitement and pride.

Art in Bloom, the exhibit by innovative and creative floral designers who choose a piece of artwork from the OJ Show as inspiration for creating living, floral displays, provide unique 3D complements to the art, and add so much to the gallery. Due to the perishable quality of the medium, the show can only run three days, October 14th -17th. The Art in Bloom reception is on Sunday, October 15th, from 2:00 - 4:00 PM. Do visit us in full bloom!

As mentioned last month, we regret that PlaywrightsSpeak has had to cancel their October 29th performance. We look forward to a rescheduling and will keep you posted.

Finally, we wish, as always, to thank our volunteers and all of you who support the Guild. We could not do this without you! If you have forgotten to renew your membership for 2023, please click HERE to pay online, or contact the Guild. Membership dues help us pay those ever increasing bills.

Thank you.

In Memoriam

Eleanor C. Dreskin, 97, passed away on July 20, 2023. She was an Exhibiting Member of the Guild of Creative Art since 1976. Eleanor was always exceedingly generous with her talent and spent much of her time doing demonstrations, explaining her techniques to her fellow artists. She was always very giving in her classes and was exceptionally helpful to the many students that she taught over the years. Her original artwork was frequently exhibited throughout Monmouth and Ocean counties where she received many awards. The Guild offers condolences to Eleanor's family and friends.
