

EyeSights 2024 Judge

Joel Morgovsky, retired Professor of Psychology at Brookdale Community College, brings his expertise in psychology and photography together in a specialty called PhotoPsychology. A central feature of Photo Psych is a unique method for studying photographs known as "Reading Pictures."

As a long-term member of New York's Soho Photo Gallery, he chairs its annual National Competition and also serves as a juror for the Soho Photo International Portfolio Competition.

Since 1977, he's been an exhibiting photographer, with recent exhibitions at Soho Photo Gallery. Joel is also a respected lecturer and judge at camera clubs across the tri-state area and offers workshops on the Psychology of Photography and individual mentoring. Contact him at jmorgovsky@comcast.net or through Facebook, LinkedIn and Instagram.
